

Paranoia

Refrain 1 PARANOIA is raging my brain
A clear thought is hard to find
PARANOIA drives my soul insane
Takes my body and also my mind

Strophe 1 In the night I hear loud voices calling in my head.
I can hear the black man that comes crawling under my bed.
The doctor gives me coloured pills which are red and green and blue.
He says: „This is the very best what I can do for you!“

Refrain 2 PARANOIA is raging my brain
A clear thought is hard to find
PARANOIA drives my soul insane
Takes my body and also my mind

Strophe 2 On the streets the people point with their fingers at me.
I know, the whole world wants to kill or bring me down.
The doctor said, the pills would help to fall asleep at night.
But when I take them I get down into another fight.
